ADVOCACY AND NETWORKING

Advocacy and networking involve active and collaborative engagement in professional networks and initiatives that contribute to ongoing professional development and a facilitate networking and collaboration with diverse stakeholders.

- CGAH Expert Working Group for Youth – Member
 - This working group meets monthly and is tasked with developing next steps for the dissemination of Canada's Guidance on Alcohol and Health to youth.
- Atlantic Injury Prevention Coalition: Fall Prevention and Rural Communities working group
 - This working group meets monthly to discuss priorities related to fall prevention in rural communities and develop research opportunities to identify the social determinants of falls.
- Nova Scotia Alcohol Policy Coalition (NSAPC) – Co-Chair

- NSAPC was created in 2021 by members of Nova Scotia communities to advocate for safer and healthier alcohol policy for all Nova Scotians. Members come from a variety of organizations including NS universities, community health boards, municipalities, NGOs, and NS Health. NSAPC meets bimonthly to discuss alcohol-related issues impacting Nova Scotians, select the ones we can meaningfully influence, and then strategize how to take action and who to partner with.
- NSAPC Working Group Member - Strengthening Alcohol Policies in Municipalities
- Atlantic Alcohol Policy Network (AAPN) – Member
 - Formed in 2021, the AAPN aims to enhanced coordination and integration across alcohol policy-focused health stakeholders within Atlantic government departments. Membership includes a small group of representatives from the four Atlantic provincial governments health departments, IWK Health, Canadian Cancer Society, Atlantic Collaborative of Injury Prevention, and StFX SHEA Lab.
- Canadian Alcohol Policy Evaluation (CAPE) Community of Practice – Member
 - Hosted by the Canadian Institute for Substance Use Research (CISUR), the CAPE Community of Practice (CoP) aims to establish a national alcohol policy community that builds and sustains long-term connections, collaborations, and professional development between individuals from a variety of government and non-government sectors with the shared goal of promoting healthy public policy.
 - Alcohol Warning Label Working Group – Member
- Coalition for Reducing Alcohol Harms on NS Postsecondary Campus – Steering Committee Member
 - Co-chaired by Dr. Robert Strang, Chief Medical Officer of Health in NS, and Elizabeth Yeo, VP of Students at STFX, this coalition takes a leadership role in creating a culture of moderate consumption and reducing alcohol related harms on postsecondary campuses.
